ALL SHORE MEDIA PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Co-Overall Shore Conference Offensive Players of the Week

Carmen Sclafani, So., QB, Toms River North; Tom Kelly, Jr., QB, Lacey

In a pair of pivotal Class A South games in Week Six, two rising stars played outstanding games under the spotlight. Toms River North's Carmen Sclafani (pictured far left) ran for 140 yards and three touchdowns on 16 carries and also threw for 78 yards as the Mariners took down previously unbeaten Brick Memorial with a 30-25 win. Sclafani busted off a 68-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter for what proved to be the game-winning score to give Toms River North a 12-point lead it would not relinquish. Sclafani has now run for 478 yards and eight touchdowns in five games while also throwing for 623 yards and 5 touchdowns.

A day later, Kelly was brilliant in a 21-19 win over Southern that kept the Lions unbeaten and gave them sole possession of first place in the division.

Kelly finished 22-for-28 for 241 yards and two touchdowns and also ran for a touchdown to power the win. Kelly is now now 59-for-79 passing for 1,010 yards and 13 touchdowns in six games this season for an offense averaging 42.3 points per game. ## Overall Shore Conference Defensive Player of the Week

Isaac Coates, Sr., DT, Red Bank Regional

In one of the biggest upsets in the Shore Conference this season, previously winless Red Bank toppled defending Central Jersey Group III champion Neptune, 21-19, in a Class B North game. Coates was a big reason why, as he controlled the interior of the line of scrimmage and finished with 7 tackles, 2 tackles for a loss, and a batted pass. Coates has been one of the Shore's top defensive linemen all season and was part of a unit that forced five turnovers in the Neptune victory, which also included standout performances from Tahji Tomaino, Garrett Sickels, Dillon Stambaugh, Ross Gisondi and Jahimere Hinton.
